

'HOW TO' GUIDE:

Searching and Submitting Comments on the Environmental Registry of Ontario (ERO)

To find, track and comment on project proposals

STEP ONE

Visit
ero.ontario.ca

Reminder: you need a 'My Ontario' account before you can submit comments! If you need assistance, see our How To Guide on Registering with the ERO

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Environmental Registry of Ontario (ERO) website. The browser address bar displays 'ero.ontario.ca'. The page features a green header with the Ontario logo and the text 'Environmental Registry of Ontario'. Below the header is a navigation menu with 'Home', 'Search', 'Map', and 'About'. A user profile 'Hi, Jenna' and a language selector 'Français' are visible. The main content area has a dark background with a large image of a bee on a purple flower. A white text box on the left says 'Welcome to the Environmental Registry of Ontario' and 'The registry allows you to comment and share your thoughts on actions we take that could affect the environment.' Below this is a blue 'Search the registry' button. Underneath, there is a section titled 'I am looking for:' with three icons: a calendar for 'all new postings in the last 7 days', a document for 'all instruments (permits, approvals, etc.) posted in the last 7 days', and a location pin for 'View consultations on our map'. At the bottom, there are sections for 'Recent policy, act, and regulation notices' and 'Featured consultation'.

STEP TWO

Click
"Search"

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Environmental Registry of Ontario (ero.ontario.ca). The browser's address bar displays the URL. The navigation menu includes 'Home', 'Search', 'Map', and 'About'. The 'Search' link is circled in red. Below the navigation is a large banner with the text 'Welcome to the Environmental Registry of Ontario' and a 'Search the registry' button. Further down, there are three sections: 'I am looking for:' with icons for a calendar, a document with a ribbon, and a location pin; 'Recent policy, act, and regulation notices'; and 'Featured consultation'.

STEP THREE
Enter Keywords or “Filter” your results, then Click “Search”

The screenshot shows the search interface of the Environmental Registry of Ontario. At the top, the browser address bar displays 'ero.ontario.ca'. The page header includes the Ontario logo and navigation links for Home, Search, Map, and About. The search section is titled 'Search' and contains a text input field with the text 'Ring of Fire' and a blue 'Search' button. A red circle highlights the search input field, and a red arrow points to the 'Search' button. Below the search bar, there are filter options for 'Date range', 'Comment period', 'Notice type', 'Notice stage', 'Posted by', 'Act', and 'Instrument type'. The search results section shows '12067 results' and lists several entries, including 'Reloop Inc.', '1621744 ONTARIO INC.', and 'Explor Resources Inc.', each with details like instrument type, ERO number, notice type, and dates.

STEP FOUR

From your search results, click on the proposal you wish to comment on
